

Hello, my dear students, this week check the transformation into past tense

It was Monday morning, the first day of his holiday. James was lying in his bed but he wasn't sleeping. He was thinking about his holiday, doing plans, looking forward to his trip/ journey to the sea with Jenny. The sun was shining through the window and outside a blackbird was singing loudly in the peach tree. In the next garden children were playing, They also had a holiday. On/in the arm chair near the bed there was a cat sitting and looking at James. It was waiting for something. James got up and went to the bathroom. While he was sitting in the bath, the telephone started ringing. He took a towel and ran downstairs. When he got to the hall, the telephone was still ringing. "Hallo," said James. He hoped to hear Jenny's voice. „Hallo,“ said a man's voice. „James, I know you are looking forward to your holiday but can you come to the office today for some time? Robert is ill.“

Pozn. V mnoha větách můžete dát přísloveč.určení, tedy kde nebo kdy, na začátek i na konec věty podle toho, jak moc to ve větě chcete zdůraznit, ale to říkám stále, když překládáme.

Příběh krále ze Seriphos. Chtěl se oženit s matkou Persea. Perseus ho neměl rád a on jeho také ne. Král se rozhodl Persea zbavit. Poslal ho pro hlavu medúzy jako svatební dar. Kdo se na medúzu podíval, zkameněl. Perseus požádal bohy o pomoc. Bohyně Athéna mu věnovala štít a bůh Hermes mu věnoval boty a helmu. Boty ho donesly na ostrov, kde medúza bydlela. Helma ho učinila neviditelným a štít použil, aby se na medúzu nemusel podívat. (aby přeložíte infinitivem – not to watch). S pomocí darů usekl medúze hlavu a dal ji do vaku. Vrátil se zpět. Z vaku vyndal hlavu. Král se na dar podíval a zkameněl.

Nezapomeňte poslat do 31.5. Vydržte ještě 2 – 3 týdny pracovat, ať nemusím zhoršovat známky.

Have a nice time.
